

Native Americans of Virginia CBRT Script
By Teachers at a Kennedy Center CETA Course Workshop

- 1: Up Next on WSOL—
2: Stay tuned for everyone's favorite quiz show. [SE]
All: Are You Smarter than a Second-Grader? [ges]
3: Please welcome your hosts: Virginia Beach and James Town.
4: Thank you fans, thank you! Tonight, our contestants will compete for the jackpot prize of an all expenses paid trip to the three Native American regions: Eastern Woodlands,
All: [SE] [Oooh] Eastern Woodlands
4: Plains,
All: [SE] [Ahhh] Plains
4: and Southwest.
All: [SE] [Oooh] Southwest.
5: So let's get the show rolling! All of tonight's questions will be on the topic of...
All: Native Americans
6: You mean the 1st Americans?
All: Yes, the Native Americans are the 1st Americans [GE]
4: The first question is
5: Which region is home to the Powhatan people?
7: The Western Woodlands!
All: [SE] [ges]
4: I'm sorry, that's incorrect. The correct answer is—
5: The Eastern Woodlands
All: The Powhatan people lived in the Eastern Woodlands.
4: Speaking of homes, what type of home did the Powhatan live in?
8: I know! The Powhatan lived in wood and bark homes.
5: That's correct! [SE]
All: The Powhatan lived in wood and bark homes.
4: They also built one form of their transportation out of wood. Does anybody know what it was called?
9: I know. That's easy. They traveled in canoes but they also walked. [SE]
10: Does that mean they have wooden feet?
All: [groan]
5: Moving on, what was the climate like in the Eastern Woodlands region?
11: Pick me! Pick me!
4: Yes contestant!
11: Mild winters and HOT, HUMID summers [SE] [ges]
All: [SE] [gesture]
5: That's right!
4: Now it's time for the final question on Are You Smarter than a Second-Grader?
5: Which best describes the land in the Eastern Woodlands: Hills, mountains, rivers, or coast?
12: But that's a trick question. They all describe the land.
All: [SE] Hills, mountains, rivers, and coast all describe the land.
4,5: We are all winners on...
All: Are You Smarter than a Second-Grader?
4,5: All aboard!